

Build better cities by supporting the Kinder Institute's unique brand of research in action. The Corporate Council is a leading group of corporations, corporate foundations, and other organizations dedicated to supporting the Kinder Institute's mission. All contributions are tax deductible as allowed by U.S. law.

Benefactor's Circle $100,000 AND ABOVE

All privileges of subsequent levels, plus:

- Customized program of exclusive privileges established in conversation with Kinder Institute Director and Director of Development

Founder's Circle $50,000 +

All privileges of subsequent levels, plus:

- Featured recognition in Kinder Quarterly newsletter "Contributor Spotlight" article
- Logo listing in monthly Kinder Institute e-newsletter

Chairman's Circle $25,000 +

All privileges of subsequent levels, plus:

- Invitation to inaugural Kinder Urban Visionary Award Dinner (Fall 2017)
- Invitation to annual Kinder Institute Holiday Reception with Advisory Board members and Rice University leadership
- Verbal recognition from podium at Kinder Institute Forum lectures and other public programs
- Name listing in monthly Kinder Institute e-newsletter

Director's Circle $15,000 +

All privileges of subsequent levels, plus:

- Invitation to informal dinners with visiting Kinder Institute Forum speakers
- Logo recognition in select Kinder Institute research reports and other publications

Visionary Circle $10,000 +

All privileges of subsequent levels, plus:

- Priority reservations and reserved seating at Kinder Institute Forum lectures and other public programs
- On-screen logo recognition at Kinder Institute Forum lectures and other public programs
- Logo listing on Kinder Institute website

Leadership Circle $5,000 +

All privileges of subsequent levels, plus:

- Invitation to semi-annual Urban Salon series (see Guide below)
- Private presentation by Dr. Stephen Klineberg, Director Bill Fulton, or another Kinder Institute scholar or fellow (One engagement per year, subject to speaker availability)

Legacy Circle $2,500 +

All privileges of subsequent levels, plus:

- Invitation to Kinder Insiders breakfast series (see Guide below)
- Complimentary copies of select research reports, including Dr. Stephen Klineberg's annual Kinder Houston Area Survey
- Name recognition in print programs for Kinder Institute Forum lectures

Supporter's Circle $1,000 +

- Invitation to Kinder Institute Annual Reception and Meeting to learn latest news on research initiatives and other endeavors
- Advanced notice of public programs, including Kinder Institute Forum lecture series (see Guide below)
- Receipt of Kinder Quarterly, a newsletter solely for Kinder Institute contributors
- Name recognition on Kinder Institute website, in Kinder Quarterly newsletter, and in Kinder Institute Annual Report

To participate in the Corporate Council, please contact:

John Bradshaw Jr. Director of Development bradshaw@rice.edu 713-348-8068	Evan Wildstein Associate Director of Development ewildstein@rice.edu 713-348-4171
--	---

or visit kinder.rice.edu/CorporateCouncil/

Kinder Institute Program Series Guide

Kinder Institute Forum is a public lecture series featuring experts from the urban planning and policy arena; held 4 to 6 times per year at the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston.

Kinder Insiders is an invitation-only breakfast series featuring research scholars and leading Rice faculty members; held four times a year at the Rice University Faculty Club.

Urban Salon is an invitation-only series featuring prominent local experts in conversation with Kinder Institute leadership; held twice a year in a private residence.