Pleasant Hill Student Ministries

Mission:

Pleasant Hill Student Ministries is dedicated to building Christian, college-bound leaders. It aims to help each student grow and progress academically, emotionally, and spiritually through a program called PHASE.

PHASE offers a holistic approach that blends training in academics, recreation, Christian leadership, and fine arts. As an after-school program, the Leadership Institute creates a safe and nurturing environment for student in the 6th-12th grade during their time away from school. Not only does the program provide homework help, but it also engages students in academic tutorials, community service, and cultivation of fine art talents in order to help our students be more competitive in the college admission process.

Current Students:

Fellows Olivia Aguilar (right) and Imani Butler (left) are currently developing curriculum for after school programming at PHASE. Our fellows are implementing new methods to track the grades and progress of the students enrolled in the program. They are also increasing the students' social awareness by intentionally planning projects that focus on artistic expression and activism.
