Houston is resilient, especially in these times of uncertainty and global health concerns. Recognizing the value of our research for the city’s business, nonprofit, and civic communities, the Kinder Institute has re-envisioned its 2020 luncheon as a virtual Lunch-Out — accessible at no cost to all who wish to participate.

From the safety and comfort of your preferred location, join us online, Monday, May 18 as Stephen Klineberg presents his celebrated Kinder Houston Area Survey, and to honor Rev. William A. Lawson with the 2020 Stephen L. Klineberg Award for his 60+ years of service to Houston. The Lunch-Out program includes remarks from Rice University President David W. Leebron, Kinder Institute Director Bill Fulton, and Houston Education Research Consortium Director Ruth N. López Turley.

Reverend William A. Lawson
2020 Klineberg Award Recipient

Reverend William A. Lawson has been one of Houston's most influential spiritual leaders for over 60 years. Lawson was launched into the civil rights movement when 14 TSU students conducted a sit-in to protest segregation at a lunch counter. He helped lead the movement in Houston, organizing one of the first protests against segregated schools, registering thousands of black voters, and even marching with Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

The Lawson family founded Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church in their home in June 1962 with 13 members. The congregation has grown to over 15,000 members, hosting numerous outreach and advocacy programs for African Americans, Hispanics, women and the poor.

Lawson's lasting impact on the Houston community continues through the William A. Lawson Institute for Peace and Prosperity, a nonprofit advocacy agency created in 1996 in his honor.

Stephen L. Klineberg, Ph.D.
Keynote Speaker

Stephen Klineberg is the Kinder Institute's founding director. Over the past 39 years, his annual Kinder Houston Area Survey has measured the evolving perceptions and experiences of Houstonians during a period of remarkable change.

Klineberg's long-awaited book on Houston, “Prophetic City: Houston on the Cusp of a Changing America,” will be released by Simon & Schuster this year, building on findings from the annual surveys. The recipient of 12 major teaching awards, he is a highly sought-after speaker in Houston and elsewhere. Klineberg is a graduate of Haverford College, with an M.A. from the University of Paris and a Ph.D. from Harvard.
